

To whom it may concern:

My family and I have enjoyed not having our day being interrupted by telemarketing. We are inundated with too many commercials on television which by the way are unsolicited and do not want my telephone the same way.

I pay for the telephone service and I want it for my personal use and any calls made to my home phone or cell phone by telemarketers is an intrusion upon my family's privacy.

The telephone is a tool that I pay for to be used as I deem necessary.

Sincerely,
E. Delenne O'Connor
